Greetings Fellow Lions

This year's Installation Banquet was a great success. It was nice to see many of our club members in attendance. A special thanks to Lion Pat & Carroll for all their hard work to make it happen! Hope all had a good time! Welcome to our 4 new members to the mighty Gagewood Lions club, Anthony Szot, Cindy Otrembiak, Ron Otrembiak, and Kim Flood who were installed at our banquet by our District Governor Lion Marty Reading.

As summer has started so has the club events…. Lake County Fair, Gurnee Days and the Pig Roast are right around the corner. I know we will be ready for the challenge with new members and friends to help out this year.

As I pass the gavel to Lion Pat Herman I say good luck and thank you all for supporting and guiding me over the last year as president.

Let's have a great summer!

Lion Troy Smith
President,

Installation Banquet:

The Gagewood Installation Banquet was held at Parkway by the Lake on June 13. Along with installing our officers, four new members were sworn in as well. Welcome to the Gagewood Lions! Thanks to Lion Pat Herman and Carroll Flood for organizing a great banquet. Our host, Jerry Ming, was also the speaker and talked about the puppy he is training for Leader Dog for the Blind. A very interesting speech and very commendable of Jerry to take on this task.

Welcome new members Anthony Szot, Cindy Otrembiak, Ron Otrembiak, and Kim Flood with their respective sponsors Lion Lee Piekarz, Lion Mary Reading & Lion Carroll Flood

DG Lion Marty Reading swears in the new members

Jerry Ming with the puppy he is training for Leader Dog. He will train the puppy until December, then pass the puppy on to the next level trainer.

Scholarship:

Stephanie Paredes, Evan Peters, and Emily Marie Jahn were each presented with a $1,000 scholarship for college by the Gagewood Lions Club.
Lion Harold Flood is presenting.
Congratulations to each of you and best wishes in college!

Annual Carp Derby:

The Gagewood Lions were on hand to help at the Annual Carp Derby sponsored by the Gages Lake Conservation Committee in cooperation with Wildwood Park District on the annual Illinois Department of Natural resources free fishing day. It was a rough start weather-wise, but all had fun.
