July proved to be a busy month responding to flood victims and so much more

Hello My Fellow Lions,

July has come and gone. It has has been a busy month.

Most important is that District 1-F Alert Leader Lion Larry Spaeth (PDG) has been working very hard to help those in need due to the flooding in much of Lake County.

On July 20th through July 22nd Lion Larry, myself and several other Lions spent three days at the resource center in Round Lake Beach talking with flood victims in the greater Lake County area. During that three-day period we collected over 300 names of people who requested our help with items like food, blankets, cleaning supplies, toiletries and water. We asked for and received a grant of $10,000 from LCIF.

This past week Lion Larry along with Lion Don Borgwardt, Lion Pat Herman, Lion Tom Lippert, Lion CST Katy Dolan Baumer, IPDG Lion Barbara Lahtinen, 1stVDG Lion Kathleen Marusich and more have worked

Some of the activities that I have been to include a Fox Lake installation, budget meeting, zone chair training, disaster relief program, Lake Zurich Alpine Days, Lake County Fair, Waukegan Little Fort meeting and Antioch Chicken Roast. Also spent some time at the Grant Township Relief center.
