Mr. Selders showed us a video about the Northwest Special Recreation Association (NWSRA) and what they do. He discussed their fundraisers and the Special Olympic Games they are a part of.

We should send him a flyer about the hearing bus that will be at the Club Name of Lion being nominated

Please explain why the above individual exemplifies the characteristics of the award they are being nominated for.

_ One would be hard pressed to find a Lion more dedicated or more exemplary than Lion Ron. Lion Ron has served in leadership positions both at the club and district level. Lion Ron has served on every committee assigned to him with distinction and nearly always as its Chairman. Never a grumble, just hard work. He continues to serve at the International, District and Club level and he represents all of us with pride in being a Lion.

Lion Ron is one of the most compassionate members in the Arlington Heights Lions. He is always the first to check on you, first to visit you if you are in the hospital or "Rehab". Quick to put a smile on your face and make you feel important. His humor is a special gift. He is a mentor to the new members and supporter of the old members. Service to all, all the time. No need to ask twice, Lion Ron is there whatever you need. Melvin Jones would be proud of Lion Ron and would count him among his friends. He has served this District for years. Always with a smile and an open heart. We are fortunate to have Lion Ron as a friend and a Lion. We are so proud of you Lion Ron!

Lions Code of Ethics

To Show my faith in the worthiness of my vocation by industrious application to the end that I may merit a reputation for quality of service.

To Seek success and to demand all fair remuneration or profit as my just due, but to accept no profit or success at the price of my own self-respect lost because of unfair advantage taken or because of questionable acts on my part.

To Remember that in building up my business it is not necessary to tear down another's; to be loyal to my clients or customers and true to myself.

Whenever a doubt arises as to the right or ethics of my position or action towards others, to resolve such doubt against myself.

To Hold friendship as an end and not a means. To hold that true friendship exists not on account of the service performed by one to another, but that true friendship demands nothing but accepts service in the spirit in which it is given.

Always to bear in mind my obligations as a citizen to my nation, my state, and my community, and to give them my unswerving loyalty in word, act, and deed. To give them freely of my time, labor and means.

To Aid others by giving my sympathy to those in distress, my aid to the weak, and my substance to the needy.

To Be Careful with my criticism and liberal with my praise; to build up and not destroy.

In Recognition

Lorraine Kanara and family recently sent us an acknowledgement letter, expressing her appreciation for helping her and her husband obtain a leader dog through Light House for the Blind. She writes, "Thanks to the Lions for your help of getting in touch with the Light House for the Blind to get our Leader Dog, Tessa. She has served my husband thousand-fold. She would have been 15 years old this June.

My husband passed away on the 4th of January and as of this letter, I've also had to put Tessa down to join him. She was deaf and couldn't do stairs anymore...due to her legs giving out."

She wanted us to know how thankful she was for the donation we made and to keep us updated.

Thank you, Lorraine, for keeping us in your thoughts and taking the time to write us a letter.

Thanks to all the Lions who helped Lorraine and her husband with this matter.

Editor's Notes

Spring is in the air! I can almost feel the warmer weather coming in....almost! The days are getting longer and that means there's more time in the day to help those in need. We have had a very busy start to 2011, with the Quad City meetings, the blizzard and the convention just passing. It's been hard to get a newsletter together. But as the snow thaws and things quiet down, it's nice to get back to publishing and back to our regular meetings. Although spring is right around the corner, my husband and I have planned a trip to Jamaica in a few weeks. We just couldn't wait anymore!!

Happy Reading,

Kristen
