QUAD CLUB MEETING

The Mount Prospect Lions Club had 23 Member attend the Quad Club Meeting on Thursday, January 13th, which was hosted by the Prospect Heights Club. The pasta buffet meal was good and the entertainment was excellent. A few of our members acted as the illusionist's assistants. Even being as close as they where they did not see how he was doing his illusions especially Lion John Korn. He watched the napkin covered glass for 10 minutes and still did not see the glass disappear from under the napkin. Anyway all that attended had a great time. The Arlington Heights Lions will have to top this meeting next year.

NOMINATING COMMITTEE

Nominating committee of Lions Rob Habel, Rock Bork and Pat LeBeau will be looking for a few good Lions to serve on the Board for the Lion year 2010/2011. Remember our Club will stay strong if members are willing to participate on the Board. Do not say NO to the nominating committee.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY LIONS

SMILE

A school teacher injured his back and had to wear a plaster cast around the upper part of his body. It fit under his shirt and was not noticeable at all. On the first day of the term, still with the cast under his shirt, he found himself assigned to the toughest students in school. Walking confidently into the rowdy classroom, he opened the window as wide as possible and then busied himself with desk work. When a strong breeze made his tie flap, he took the desk stapler and stapled the tie to his chest. Discipline was not a problem from that day forth!

A hunchback is running along a street being chased by a pack of children. He stops, turns around and shouts, "Will you all get lost! I haven't got your bloody ball!"

Strolling into a bank, the woman presented a check and asked the teller to cash it. The teller informed the woman that she must first identify herself. Pulling a mirror from a purse the woman looked in it and said, "Yes sir-it's me, all right."
