Lion Barb had no formal reports, but did report a donation from the Corts family and donations in memory of our late Lion Dr. G Welch.

one had the correct answer, which is 20.

due to the untimely death of Leslie's husband. Last Saturday evening's session was more profitable than opening night. Some details were discussed about the reports that need to be received so that tax paperwork can be prepared. Lion Bill J. will put together a list of things he needs for that paperwork. Lion Betty will contact Leslie with the list of requests.

Lion Bill J. mentioned the upcoming district bowling tournament to be held in February, 2012. He suggested we check with Hersey High School to see if there are any deaf students who would like to bowl that we could sponsor and also treat to pizza afterwards. Lion Greg will follow up with the school.

Lion Ron reported he will attend the Elk Grove Village and Mt. Prospect meetings to push attendance at the Quad Club Meeting. Lion Greg will join him and also attend a meeting in Prospect Hts. He also mentioned the district convention and is looking to share the room table again with the Palatine Club.

Lion Betty discussed a Christmas project the Lions can do at Clementi's. A Christmas tree would have names of needy children on cards that anyone could pick. The card would have a gift that the child would like from Santa. The person would bring a wrapped gift to Clementi's with the child's name attached and they would then be forwarded. Lion Bill J. motioned that the club do the project, passed.

The meeting ended at 8:40PM.

Editor's Notes

Tis the Season! Already we're into the holidays and it's going fast. I hope everyone had a great Thanksgiving and was fortunate enough to spend it with family and friends.

Now that Christmas is quickly approaching, it's easy to get wrapped up in all the hustle and bustle. I hope you all take the time to stop and reflect on our community, and those who are less fortunate than us. Lion Betty has come up with a great idea to help those who are in need this holiday season by giving them something they genuinely need or want. I hope we will be able to reach out and make a difference together as Lions.

All the Best,

Kristen
