SENIOR CHRISTMAS PARTY

Whew!!!!!!!!!!!!!! It's over, and I think our Senior Christmas party at Village Hall was a great success!

I want to thank everyone for all of their help, beginning with the set-up, serving our guests, and for the fast clean-up. From the comments I heard from the Seniors, they really enjoyed themselves, and were pleasantly surprised with the gift card from Santa.

Thank you Fred for suggesting Village Hall for the party.

Thank you Marie and Doc for bringing the terrific desserts.

Thank you Pat for donating the scarves. They were quite a hit!

Fred, please thank Donna for coming to my rescue with her lovely soprano voice.

Don, please thank Elaine for all of her help.

Mike, please thank Teresa for all of her help.

Rob, thanks for bringing the supplies I missed finding in the lock-up, and for thinking to make hot chocolate.

Rick, thanks for writing all of the checks that I constantly bugged you for.

Rosemary, Rock, Ric, Diana, Tony, Tim, Mike, Don, Tom, Ron, and Jill, thank you all!

The dedication and the hard work of the members of the Mount Prospect Lions Club are the main reasons Jerry and I love being Lions.

You guys rock!

SHORTS

The tree Lighting Committee did an outstanding job of serving Lion's special hot chocolate and passing out candy canes.

We had one our members come to the December board meeting on Wednesday, November 30th. Lion Tim, that what I call dedication.

The Chamber will be presenting The Club a special award at its luncheon gala.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY LIONS

At a country-club party a young man was introduced to an attractive girl. Immediately he began paying her court and flattering her outrageously. The girl liked the young man, but she was taken a bit aback by his fast and ardent pitch. She was amazed when after 30 minutes he seriously proposed marriage. "Look," she said. "We only met a half hour ago. How can you be so sure? We know nothing about each other." "You're wrong," the young man declared. "For the past 5 years I've been working in the bank where your father has his account."

Mom, where did all these lovely toys come from? Santa Claus brought them all. Did he bring everything.... the football, the robot, the computer game..... and everything? Of course he did. So who buys all the things in the shops?

What shall we get dad for Christmas? He says he's thinking about buying a new car. Great. Let's buy him a chauffeur's outfit.
