SHORTS

The Ryder Cup Application has been completed and has been sent to the Ryder Cup committee. Let's keep our fingers crossed.

The Club owes Jean Murphy a big thank you for her excellent job in helping write the final version of the Ryder Cup Application. Also, she should get a bunch of kudos for the editing she did with the home page of our web site. Again, thank you Jean for all your help.

Past President Night is on Thursday, February 23th. Lion Ron Habel, one of our Past President's has volunteered to chair the event. He has informed this editor that he is planning a spectacular evening for our past leaders.

Nominating committee of Barb Laz, Mike Giblin, and a Lion to be named later will be looking for a few good Lions to serve on the Board for the Lion year 2012/2013. Remember our Club will stay strong if members are willing to participate on the Board. Do not say NO to the nominating committee.

The Mount Prospect Chamber of Commerce presented the Club with the 2012 Chamber's Partner Award.

A man walked into the office of the eminent psychiatrist Dr. Von Bernuth, and sat down to explain his problem. "Doctor, doctor!" he started. "No need to repeat yourself, my good man," replied the doctor. "One 'doctor' is enough." "Yes, well, you see, I've got this problem," the man continued. "I keep hallucinating that I'm a dog, a large, white, hairy Pyrenees mountain dog. It's crazy. I don't know what to do!" "A common canine complex," said the doctor soothingly. "Come over here and lie down on the couch." "Oh no, Doctor. I'm not allowed up on the furniture."

Two blonde carpenters were working on a house. The one who was nailing down siding would reach into his nail pouch, pull out a nail and either toss it over his shoulder or nail it in. The other, figuring this was worth looking into, asked, "Why are you throwing those nails away?" The first explained, "If I pull a nail out of my pouch and it's pointed toward me, I throw it away 'cause it's defective. If it's pointed toward the house, then I nail it in!" The second blonde got completely upset and yelled, "You moron! The nails pointed toward you aren't defective! They're for the other side of the house!"

A young woman confides to a friend that she wants to quit smoking, but nothing she does seems to work. "Have you tried the patch?" her friend asks. "No, that's one thing I haven't tried," the woman says, "because I'm not sure it works." Says her friend, "I'm sure it would if you put it over your mouth."
