President's Letter

Greetings Fellow Lions,

I hope that everyone will be able to attend our meeting this Thursday.

We try to avoid pressuring anyone to do something they are not able to do, however, I do want to encourage each of you to do whatever you can to help others. There are certainly enough options available to interest everyone, even if your interest is only touched in one area. Please do whatever you can to make life better for others.

Area school age children from low income families need help with school supplies, it is not a requirement for you to provide help, however, your help will certainly be appreciated. Walmart seems to have the lowest prices and Meiyers also has good prices with limitations.

There will always be candy Day and other events supporting Lionism that help our cause. We hope you will plan ahead and be available to contribute a few hours of your time each year to do what is most important to us.

Thank you in advance for your time, help, caring and understanding

Yours in Lionism,

Lion Darlene Borgwardt
