Lions Worldwide Week of Service - January 2015

I am inviting you to join me and Lions around the world for a special Centennial Service Challenge event.

The Lions Worldwide Week of Service in January is an international event that brings Lions around the world together for a week of service during January 10-16. It's an opportunity to strengthen your community, showcase your club to potential new members, and celebrate the birthday of our founder, Melvin Jones.

This year, I'm calling on Lions around the world to rededicate themselves to the mission of our founder and the humanitarian goals of our association. You can put your dedication into action by hosting a Worldwide Week of Service project that benefits youth, vision, hunger or the environment.

Whatever you do for the Worldwide Week of Service in January, make it a special day! Here's how your club can take part in this special service event:

Plan your project - Host a service project that benefits youth, vision, hunger or the environment during the week of January 10-16.

Share your project - Invite your community to serve with you to showcase your club and the power of service.

Report your project - Report your service on the MyLCI Service Activity Report to earn a Centennial Banner Patch for your club.

World's Largest Service Organization Lions Clubs International Joins President's United We Serve Initiative

As New Federal Study Reports Boost in Volunteerism During Tough Times, Lions Longtime Leadership in Volunteerism Remains Strong

A longtime leader in volunteerism and the world's largest service organization, Lions Clubs International joined President Obama's United We Serve initiative. A national effort launched by the Obama administration to engage more Americans in service, United We Serve kicks off at a time when the economy is down but volunteer efforts are up, according to a new Volunteering in America report.

With more than 373,000 Lions clubs members across the United States and 1.35 million members worldwide, Lions will continue their long-standing commitment to bettering the communities where they live through United We Serve.

"Lions around the world have long been dedicated to serving their community through humanitarian service programs that improve the health and well-being of fellow community members. Through funding from LCIF, Lions in the U.S. are organizing a number of events as part of United We Serve Health Week, including preventative and sight-saving eye health programs," said Albert Brandel, PIP. "In these tough economic times, we need volunteers more than ever," continued Brandel. "Lions volunteers will help us fill the growing need for community services."

According to the new report released by the Corporation for National and Community Service, even during a time of prolonged economic recession, volunteering has remained steady, fueled by a compassion boom led by young adults and a wave of do-it-yourself volunteers working with their neighbors to fix problems.

Volunteering in America 2009, the most comprehensive data ever assembled on volunteer trends and demographics, found that a total of 61.8 million Americans volunteered through an organization in 2008, up one million from the previous year. America's volunteers dedicated more than 8 billion hours of service in 2008, worth an estimated $162 billion.

Last year, the average Lions club provided 739 volunteer service hours to the community. This represents an estimated worldwide total of 33 million volunteer service hours provided by Lions. Additionally, the average Lions club donated $13,375 to charitable causes, representing an estimated total of $601 million donated by Lions worldwide.

United We Serve focuses on five key areas where everyone can have a real impact in their community: education, health, energy and the environment; community renewal safety and security.

To make it easy for individuals to get involved, the Corporation created www.Serve.gov, a website that allows visitors to type in their zip code to find local volunteer opportunities, recruit volunteers by posting their organization's projects, or get ideas for creating their own projects with friends, families, and neighbors. Lions events and other volunteer opportunities are listed on www.Serve.gov.

Public Relations Chairman Walt Holden, PDG

Public Relations in Action

Our mission statement: It is the goal of the Public Relations Committee to tell the general public about the services provided by the Lions Club in its community and what the Lions are doing around the world.

I have been busy! I have displayed our Traveling District "Pop Up" at the 4G's Dinner, the Fox Lake Flower Show, the Mt. Prospects Corned Beef and Cabbage Dinner, and then I delivered it to Wauconda for a special event. The Pop Up has had a good reception wherever it has been. It is colorful and delivers its message in words and pictures that everyone can relate.

It says, "Join the Club!" We are the World's largest service organization with 46,000 clubs and 1.35 million members. We are also the most effective. Our members do whatever is needed to help local communities. Everywhere we work we make friends with children who need eyeglasses, with seniors who don't have enough to eat and with people we many never meet.

If you want me and the Pop Up to attend your club event let me know at mylionsclub@aol.com or call (847) 679 7457. You will be put on my schedule!

Working together, we can make sure that
LIONISM IS NOT A SECRET ANY MORE!

Introducing Walter R. "Bud" Wahl, Past International Director

PDG Larry Spaeth, District 1-F representative for Walter R. "Bud" Wahl, candidate for Lions Clubs International Vice President, asks that you take a moment to review the credentials of this highly respected Lion.

Bud Wahl, of Streator, Illinois, was elected to serve a two-year term as a Director of the International Association of Lions Clubs at the Association's 86th International Convention, held in Denver, Colorado, June 30-July 4, 2003.

A charter member of the Streator Hardscrabble Lions Club, with perfect attendance since 1981, Lion Bud has held many offices within the Association including Council Chairman and Parliamentarian to the Council of Governors. He currently serves as MD-1 LCIF State Chairman and Constitution and Bylaws Chairman. Additionally he has served as a presenter at numerous club, District, state, and international events, appointed six years to the Planning Committee for the USA/Canada Lions Leadership Forum, serving as General Chairperson for the 2011 Forum which was held in Anchorage, and served on the Forum's Site Selection Committee for three years serving as Chairperson in 2014 for the 2018 site. He served as a National Coordinator for Campaign SightFirst II, as a faculty member for the 2006 and 2013 Senior Lions Leadership Institutes, and for three District Governor Elect Schools. He has served as LCI's representative on the board of trustees at Hadley School for the Blind since 2010 and was appointed by International President Tam to be the Chairperson of the Elections Committee at the 2012 International Convention.

Past Director Wahl is a graduate of Lewis University in Romeoville with a BA degree from the College of Business. He has worked in the healthcare field as a risk manager and a foundation coordinator. He is retired. In recognition of his service to the association he has received numerous awards, including the club Award of Merit, two club Lion of the Year Awards, the 100% District Governor Award, five International President's Medals, the International President's Leadership Medal, eleven International President's Certificates of Appreciation, the Membership Advancement Key, the International Extension Award, and the Ambassador of Goodwill Award, which is the highest award bestowed upon Lions by our Association.

In addition to his Lion activities, Past Director Wahl has been active in numerous professional and community organizations, including Community Players of Streator and the local United Way. Lion Bud is married to Lion Jama, a retired middle school principal, and MD-1 GLT and Area 1-C Leader. They are both Lions of Illinois Foundation Fellows and Progressive Melvin Jones Fellows. They have one daughter, Dr. Shelbie Wahl Fouts, who is also a Lion and a Melvin Jones Fellow.

Giving this Holiday Season

Lions it is the time of year when our minds begin to ponder the holiday spirit and the act of giving back to those in need. It's also our chance to celebrate the brave men and women who protect and defend America and to honor them for their courage and sacrifice. I would like to take this time to encourage the clubs in District 1-F to consider those who have served and our serving this nation by putting themselves in harms way. There are several programs in which Clubs can participate and two of these I am highlighting in this article:

Adopt-A-Sailor

The Adopt-A-Sailor program at Great Lakes Navel Station is a terrific way to show your support to those in service to our Country. Simply fill out the form and submit to the base and you can be included in the drawing to select a Sailor to participate. These are sailors who otherwise are stuck on base during the holiday. Unfortunately, the deadline for participation was October 31 and you will need to put this on your calendar for next year.

Daddy's/Mommy's Deployed www.daddysdeployed.com/

The Deployment Angels book drive is a program running from November 15-January 30, in an attempt to help brighten some military families' holidays. Each book that is sponsored will be given away to a family with a parent deployed this holiday season. This is especially important and heart-breaking to families who have Mom or Dad deployed, for their child's first Christmas, and it is The Deployment Angels' goal to have books made for as many of these tiny warriors as possible. Additional information on this program will be posted on the District website along with sample title pages.

This is a great way to help the families of those who are serving our nation. Author Bridget Platt has written a book for the families of deployed veterans to help the children cope with the separation issues that are involved. Your extent of involvement is one for your clubs to decide, and this is a great way to show those in service to our nation that Lions care. Following is an excerpt explaining their partnership strategies:

Here are the primary options we offer our partners, but we are happy to consider any suggestions you may have:

Sponsored Books Provide custom copies of Daddy's Deployed or Mommy's Deployed to military families preparing for a deployment. Free books can be distributed through sponsored company, Daddy's Deployed, or a third party. Book costs are sponsored at a 20% discount off retail prices. Shipping costs are covered by Daddy's Deployed.

Product Placement We can create a new page in our book that emphasizes your product and or your company.

Blog Highlight Our CEO will post a blog article, or series of articles, that focuses on your company, its product or services, and all of the good your company is doing through its partnership with Daddy's Deployed.

Social Media We will drive traffic to your website through our Facebook and Twitter accounts with posts that highlight your company and its products or services.

Logo Placement Your company's logo will be prominently displayed on the Daddy's Deployed website. Your company may choose to also place the Daddy's Deployed logo on your website as a proud sponsor.

I would also like to bring your attention to the fact that there are many veterans, of all wars, homeless and on the street. Veterans make up 10.9% of the country's population as a whole and constitute 22.4% of the country's homeless population. We say we want to support our communities and yet this problem persists even in Lake County the home to District 1-F. Links to learn more:

What does this have to do with membership? My job is to ensure that we as an organization are doing relevant service projects in our communities and none is more relevant to all of our communities than assisting our Veterans.

Our veterans deserve more than just our respect – we can never repay the debt we owe them. But it is our duty to do our best!

Thanking You for a Success!

Lions Clubs International's Centennial Service Challenge!

Clubs of District 1-F: Are you up to the challenge of serving 100 million people by the end of the Centennial year 2017?

Help reach the goal of serving 100 million by December 2017 by participating in the Global Service Action Campaigns! We invite you and your club to join Lions around the world in serving 100 million people. Organize projects to engage and mobilize youth, help those who live with blindness and visual impairment, help relieve hunger and bring attention to the environment. Mobilize Lions to make a difference in your community! Begin planning now with these helpful tips:

- Don't start from scratch. Expand an existing Lions project or partner with another local organization.
- Make it hands-on. The more Lions who participate, the more meaningful the project will be and the more it will help reenergize club members. Also invite members of the community to participate to generate membership interest.
- Be visible. Projects promoted to the public and held in visible areas help advertise who Lions are and what we do. Make sure project signage is highly visible and be sure to invite the media to your service activity to promote Lions and their impact.
- Don't forget recognition. Remember to thank and give recognition to Lions and non-Lions who made the project a success.
- Create excitement. Consider asking clubs in your district to conduct projects on the same weekend or week to create greater public awareness.

For further resources or information about the Global Service Action Campaigns, please contact the Service Activities Division at programs@lionsclubs.org or (630) 468-6893, or visit the Lions website and keyword search "campaigns."

Report Your Activity

Report your service activities through MyLCI's Online Service Activity Report. For more information, visit MyLCI at <http://mylci.lionsclubs.org> and review frequently asked questions about service activity reporting.

Special Recognition
