Prez Sez: This one is getting out a little late this month. I hope everyone is enjoying the warm weather now that it has finally arrived. Just a couple of quick notes.

Thank you for all the members' help in this year's ticket sales at the Lake County Fair. It seems as though a couple of members got out just in time to before the storm hit.

Speaking of the storm, I hope all our members got through with little or no damage. I drove through town early Monday morning to see if there was anywhere the club could be of assistance. What I saw was a lot of trees, some broken windows, some roofs missing shingles but mostly damage that insurance should cover.

We had one request for help, if any elderly person cannot afford to have a private service remove limbs would there be anyone available to lend a helping hand. If anyone is interested let me know please.

Lastly is the upcoming Steer Roast. I would like to ask all Committee chairs to be present if possible at the meeting August 11th to finalize details, shift assignments and so forth.

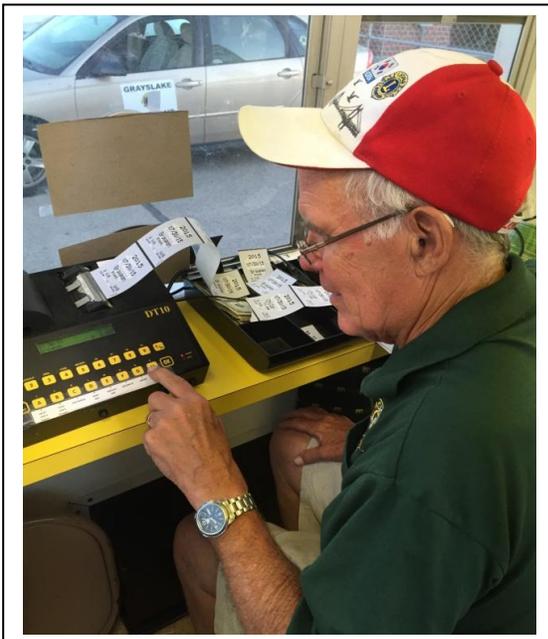

That's all for now, see you on the 11th
Lion Tim

Editorial Observation: In 2001, Lion Dietz backed up his pickup with a protruding metal sign post into a 1999 Mazda Miata, resulting in a softball sized dent in the trunk lid ($900). In 2010, after delivering paperwork to then-President Brenner, Lion Rockwell scraped the left front bumper of a 2010 Honda Accord on Chris' front sidewalk stoop ($400). In 2015, Lion Marilyn Walters, while departing at night after a long day at the Fair, dinged a 2015 Acura RDX ($TBD). When Lion and PDG Rich Walters inducts our next new member, he should say that all it takes to be a Lion is a little bit of time, money, a dedication to service, and an ongoing relationship with a good auto body shop.

On the left, Lion Bob Schilling reflects on the quality of the American public after the crush of business on Friday evening at the Fair. On the right, Lion Rich Walters prints 12 season pass tickets($300) when he meant to print 12 free kid tickets($0). This happens when you start your day at 6:00 AM and end it at 10:30 PM.
