THOUGHT FOR THE MONTH

We're all going to encounter hostile people and situations in our daily lives. The question is, how do we deal with it? Whether someone's flipping us off from their car or making provocative or negative remarks, we get to choose between engaging it and diffusing it. I have never found it beneficial to fuel conflict. Instead, I challenge myself to do my best to send the other person or situation as much love as I can.

SHORTS

The Annual Easter Egg Hunt for the visually impaired will be on Sunday, April 12th at the Gillet Center. Time 1:00 PM until 3:00 PM. After the hunt we will serve all the children and adults ice cream sundaes. Prayer for warm weather. Lion helpers will be needed.

The Club would like to thank Lion Past President Tom Laws for the outstanding entertainment at our Past Presidents Night celebration honoring our past leaders.

Great job Lions Mike Witkowski and Liz Stone on setting up and running the TIKI Bar in our hospitality room at this year's District 1-F Convention. Also, a big thank you to all our Lion members that helped Lions Mike and Liz make our room the hit of the convention. Yet but not least, we collected $350.00 for Camp Lions.

The Mount Prospect Lions Club received the Club Excellent Award for the past year at this year's Convention. Kudos go out to Lion President Mike Giblin and all the Lion members.

At our next dinner meeting on Thursday, March 26th we are to wear a Hawaiian shirt and bring non-perishable food for the St Marks Backpack Ministry (single serving cereal boxes, Oatmeal in individual packets, cereal bars, raisins in small boxes, granola bars, individual Jell-o cups, peanut butter, jelly, canned spaghetti/ravioli, canned beef stew, canned chili, boxes 'helper' meals, tuna in individual packets, Vienna sausages, chicken pouches, macaroni and cheese, soup crackers, canned fruit, fruit cups, canned vegetables, Juice boxes, shelf ready milk, pudding cups, cookies in individual packets. NOTE: No glass jars or microwavable products.

A Spanish singer chatting on television used the word 'manana'. When asked what that meant, he said it means "maybe the job will be done to-morrow, maybe the next day, maybe the day after that, next week, next month or next year. Who cares?" An Irishman in the conversation, Shay Brennan, was then asked if there's an Irish equivalent. "No. In Ireland we don't have a word to describe that level of urgency"

An Irish priest and a Rabbi get into a car accident. They get out of their cars and walk to the side of the road. The Rabbi says, "Oy vey! What a wreck!" The Irish priest pulls out a bottle of whiskey and says, "Here, drink some of this. It will calm your nerves." The Rabbi drinks the whiskey and asks, "What are we going to tell the police?" The Irish priest replies, "I don't know what you're going to tell them but, I'll tell them that I wasn't the one drinking!"
