Tail Twister Tidbits ... by Lion Rod Marino

An Eggs-tra Special Dinner Meeting

Our March dinner meeting was held on the rainy and blustery evening of Wednesday, March 16. Most of our Lions were wearing some type of green in celebration of the next day which happened to be St. Patrick's Day. Lion Mike Baumer brought a slide show from last weekend's Lions District 1-F Convention held at the Westin in Itasca. About 15 of our Elk Grove Lions attended at least some of the convention's festivities.

After singing "Happy Birthday" to Lion Ray, the evening ended with an egg hunt. The plastic eggs, which were hidden all over the room, contained raffle tickets which made the finder of the egg eligible to win one of our wonderful prizes. Congratulations to Lion Lenore (the 3rd place prize), Lion Angie (the 2nd place prize), and our Grand Prize winner Lion Katy!

2nd Vice President Report ... by Lion Mike Baumer

The Passing of an Era

We have lost a Lion's Lion. Lion Wayne was one of a kind. Though Lion Wayne's life experiences were varied and many, he retained an innocence that was quite refreshing. He was always able to bring a new and fresh take on any issue. I know he will be sorely missed by all of us. Lion Marilyn, know that we all greive with you.

Please plan on attending one Lion Watne's favorite events- LIP 'N Lunch. This year's event will be held on Saturday, May 7 at the Larry Laschen Community Center in Vernon Hills from 8:00 a.m. until 1:00 p.m. There will be three session times or 'flights' offering various diffent topics. Let Lion Secretary Katy know if you are interested. The club will cover you fees.

The results of the club survey will be presented at our next Board meeting on the 27th.

One Lone Lion

I looked out and saw darkness.
I asked, "Why is it this way?"
I then asked, "What can we do?"
A man came and silently turned on the light
He put everything back to right and then left.
I gasped and asked,
"Who was that man and where is he going?"
A voice from the heavens said to me,
"He is my helper and it is time for him to come home."
I looked back in time to see
One lone Lion as he walked away.
