This year at the 2016 USA/Canada Lions Leadership Forum, every Lion will receive a “PAW”, developed by Poken. This will give you the ability to get more information about seminars you attend, the exhibitor’s you see and other attendees at the Forum. You can plug your “Paw” into any computer PC or Mac to access all this information via a personal website just for you. You can also link your “Paw” to an App on your smart phone or tablet.

If you registered for the Forum, you will get an email from Poken about signing up on their website ahead of your arrival at the Forum. Please take time and follow the instructions sent to you to sign up as it will save you time when you arrive at the Forum and check in. What is the dress code for the Lions USA-Canada Forum?

Casual.....Casual....Casual

We want all attendees to be comfortable. Polo shirts, khakis, slacks, etc.

Everyone on stage and presenters will be in business attire, but everyone else is asked to dress comfortable.

At the Saturday closing banquet, some Lions like to dress up a little, but there are NO dress code requirements. Again, what you are comfortable in.

There is an unwritten NO TUXEDO rule !!

Recycling – Eyeglasses and Old Keys

We need your donated eyeglasses AND your old keys !!!

We will be teaching eyeglass recycling and what happens to those glasses we don't use for Lions Vision Missions.

Please bring a bag of used eyeglasses to donate for our recycling project.

ALSO, we are asking attendees to scrounge those junk drawers and find old un-needed keys. To help improve the environment, we will be collecting all the metal from unused glasses frames AND the metal keys you bring. Put them in a bag and stuff them in your suitcase !!

Some noteworthy things about Nebraska

Most places, people find it a bit strange if someone on the street strikes up a conversation with them. In Nebraska this isn't the case.

Amazingly a Nebraskan can become friends instantly with everyone in the room.

Lots of awesome steaks means Lots of Awesome cows!

Cows are everywhere in Nebraska. It has been said that number of cows in the state out number the residents by 3.5 to 1. That being said, give those Omaha Steaks a try - you won't regret it!

The real Oregon Trail is in Nebraska

In several places across the state it is still possible to see the ruts from the wagon wheels as travelers sought a new life out west.

Nebraskans would love a diet of Runzas only, if they could.

World's Greatest sandwich for Breakfast, Lunch or Dinner!

Everything is Red in Nebraska, even their beer!

While most of the world is off drinking Bloody Marys, Nebraskans are enjoying some Red Beer

Nebraskans can Git-R-Done!

Famous for being a funny southerner, Larry the Cable Guy actually hails from Pawnee, Nebraska. Before adopting his stage character, Daniel Whitney grew up on a pig farm.
