THOUGHT OF THE MONTH

HAPPY VALENTINE DAY

Love is an irresistible desire to be irresistibly desired.

Love is a canvas furnished by Nature and embroidered by imagination.

True love stories never have endings.

Gravitation is not responsible for people falling in love.

Love – a wildly misunderstood although highly desirable malfunction of the heart which weakens the brain, causes eyes to sparkle, cheeks to glow, blood pressure to rise and the lips to pucker.

The hours I spend with you I look upon as sort of a perfumed garden, a dim twilight, and a fountain singing to it. You and you alone make me feel that I am alive. Other men it is said have seen angels, but I have seen thee and thou art enough.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

Over the past few months it has could to this editor's attention that the members of this Club have been very inattentive while other members get up and report on their committee's progress or discuss other Lion business. Those Lions that have a tendency to continue to talk while other Lions have the floor, let show a little more interest in Club business and Lions information. Everything other Lions have to say when he or she has the floor at a meeting is important to each Club member in a different way. If you feel it is not important to you than just sit and listen instead of keeping a different conversation with you table mates. The word is call RESPECT.

LION OF THE MONTH

Jim asked his friend, Tony, whether he had bought his wife anything for Valentine's Day. 'Yes,' came the answer from Tony who was a bit of a chauvinist, 'I've bought her a belt and a bag.' 'That was very kind of you,' Jim added, 'I hope she appreciated the thought.' Tony smiled as he replied, 'So do I, and hopefully the vacuum cleaner will work better now.'

Mike walked into a post office just before Valentine's day, he couldn't help noticing a middle-aged, balding man standing in a corner sticking "Love" stamps on bright pink envelopes with hearts all over them. Then the man got out a bottle of Chanel perfume from his pocket and started spraying scent over the envelopes. By now Mike's curiosity had got the better of him, and so I asked the man why he was sending all those cards. The man replied, "I'm sending out 500 Valentine cards signed, 'Guess who?'" "But why?" asked Mike. "I'm a divorce lawyer," the man replied.

It was Valentine's Day and Jim and Danielle's first date. They sat in the darkened cinema waiting for the film to start. The screen finally lit up with a flashy advertisement for the cinema's concession stand. Jim and Danielle realized that there was no sound. The film began but the silence continued. Suddenly, out of the darkness, an irritated voice in the crowd loudly shouted, 'Okay, who's got the remote control?'
